

Allan Wander

December 30, 2021

Allan Wander, age 84 of Harrington Park, NJ formerly of Passaic, NJ. Beloved husband of Karin Wander née Rothenberg, dear brother of Lois Berger, devoted father of Brian Wander and Kenneth Wander, and loving father-in-law of Maria Escudero-Wander.

Allan worked as a jeweler at the Rockefeller Plaza, New York, New York. Al was athletic and social with many interests and pursuits: Charter Senior Member of the National Gem and Jewelry Association, Life Member and Producer of Musicals and Plays for the Bergen County Players, Coach for Harrington Park Little League Baseball and Softball, an Army Veteran, starting pitcher for Upsala College, weekend warrior for Harrington Park Men's Softball, avid skier of Park City, UT, Beaver Creek, CO and Bromley, VT, charter boat fisherman at Long Beach Island and a long-suffering New York Jets Season Ticket holder for 25+ years. His legacy will live on in the hearts and mind of everyone he interacted with as well as those he reached with his original and classy jewelry designs but never met.

Funeral Service will be held privately by the family. Please share your stories of remembrance on Al's Tribute Page.

Cemetery

Private

268 Kinderkamack Road

Oradell, NJ,

Comments

“ Hi this is Jerry Rabinowitz. So sorry for your loss. Alan and I were close for a long time even though we were not in touch for many years I often thought about you guys especially the cruise we took together. Again I'm so sorry I didn't see you guys more. As you know I was going thru some tough times. Regards. Jerry

Jerry Rabinowitz - February 11 at 05:02 PM

“ Hi

Jerry Rabinowitz - February 11 at 04:56 PM

“ Allan and I were coaches in girls softball. He always gave his expertise and time. He was devoted to making each and every girl better. As a friend, Allan would never say no if you needed him. We drove together to NYC FOR MANY years and for us the drive
Was the best part of the day!! He will be missed!!
Bob Lichtenstein

Robert Lichtenstein - January 04 at 04:13 PM