

Elisha Emmanuel

January 18, 2021

Born Elisha Alexander (Elisha) on March 23, 1968 to Cynthia Alexander and Lawrence Emmanuel in Castries, St. Lucia. A victim of Covid-19, she began her eternal rest on January 18, 2021 in Teaneck, New Jersey.

Elisha came to the United States after residing with her father in U.S. Virgin Islands from 1982 to 1987 and after moving from Saint Lucia. She then pursued her education at Fairleigh Dickerson University in New Jersey, where she obtained her bachelor's degree in Finance. While attending college, she worked at Citibank in New York City where she met her loving husband Noel. Their love quickly prevailed and thereafter had their first son Jonathan. Noel and Elisha got married in 1993 and started a full life as a family. Within a few years, they had their second son Matthew.

Elisha was a hard worker and dedicated to various companies, such as Bank of America, Verizon, AIG, Prudential and Fortis in New York City. She most recently worked at Samsung Electronics of America as a paralegal in the corporate office. Her time at Fortis made an impact on her life. That is where she formed allegiance with her best friends, Paulette, Jenice, Nicole (Nikki) known as the SGs (Sista Girls) - a friendship that could not be broken. Their friendship/love was dynamic.

Elisha's love for her husband was without hesitation and always present. They shared a strong and supportive bond. They admired each other; was supported in rearing their sons, visiting relatives, traveling and entertaining at their home in New Jersey. Elisha loved and adored her immediate and extended family whole-heartedly. Her dedication to her their sons Jonathan and Matthew was never-ending. She supported their goals in education and career choices which she extended to the lives of their friends as well. Their friends were welcomed to their home at any given time or celebration.

Elisha was a dedicated member of Unity Church of Christ located in Maywood, New Jersey for several years. As a Bible school teacher, she taught and mentored children. One of her true passion was to work with young minds; she was big on rearing children to be great citizens. She was also an advocate of proper discipline and appropriate manners. Several years ago, Elisha endured an unfortunate bout of spinal infection. She underwent numerous surgeries in a short period of time to treat and correct the damage sustained. She was strong, endured the pain and fought to get better for herself, her family and especially her children. She bounced back to continue her most cherished roles as wife and mother.

Elisha loved to travel with her family, but also loved her “Me Time.” She was always on a quest for mental, spiritual, and physical healing and advancement. Though she loved mental healing, she never hesitated from utilizing “YouTube” and other platforms on the internet for self-development videos. Reading books or articles were a thrill for her during her “Me Time” moments.

Elisha is predeceased by her brother Lee Emmanuel. She leaves to cherish her memory: her husband Noel Gabriel; Sons, Jonathan and Matthew Gabriel; Mother, Cynthia Alexander (Florida); Father, Lawrence Emmanuel (Boston); Siblings: Ivestus Emmanuel, Galen Emmanuel, Bernia Emmanuel, Claudia Alexander, Barbie Alexander, Steve Alexander, Tyron Alexander, Kent Laurent, Evelyne Sefil; Aunt, Genifer St. Ange; Adopted Mother, Ettie Cazaubon; God-Children: Alakay Alexander, and Levi Thomas.

She also has close family and friends located throughout New York area, Saint Lucia; a host of uncles, aunts, nieces, nephews, cousins and friends in Martinique, U.S. Virgin Islands, England, Canada and especially in the United States. Her family also included the members of the United Church of Christ led by the Rev. Dr Bessie Duncan.

“ I keep thinking about the reach of her hands. How she'd hand you a plate of food when you were at her house; or how she managed to find you and everyone else and hug us warm at the end of a party; how she'd have a niece sit down in front of her so she could braid, unbraided, and rebraided her hair. Her hands always found a way to you. And they were always bringing some type of sweetness with them.

This distance we have to keep between us feels particularly hard today, when pressed against the memories of how she reached and tended for those around her.

The thickness of the grief we're feeling today, is a reflection of the abundance of the way she loved, the way she smiled, the way she hugged, the way she was.

How she cared was too vast, too wide, too sunbeam for us not to grieve just as deep.

To Noel, Johnny, and Matthew

I am so so very sorry. To watch the way love swirled swift and pretty and strong between all of you was such a blessing:

The ways you made her laugh.
The ways you made her proud.
The ways you made her beam.
The love between you was always present on her face.

Words hold little comfort here but please know, we're here - whenever you need us. We're here, as best we can to help you navigate this grief.

She would expect nothing less of us. She would ask for nothing less from us. And although she has passed, the love you all have built together is still here. And we're here to remind you of that whenever you need it. I'm so very sorry.

As we gather to honor her today, I keep thinking if I ask all of us to think of a time we shared with her, there would be dozens of memories of her at different places at different times. But still in most of those images she's smiling.

It's impossible for a goodness like hers to only leave grief in its wake.

May we all be so kind, that when we pass, the folks who knew us hearts break open for awhile searching and reaching for us.

May we all sweep laughter and joy so easy into every room, that when we leave, the sweetness still lingers in the air.

May we all treat and speak to the people we love with such light and care, that when we're gone, it feels like there's nothing left to say.

Elisha, we will forever have gratitude and love for you. May you rest easy among the stars so we may look above and see your smile twinkling back at us.

How blessed and lucky I was to nurture this adorable flower named Elisha.

I welcomed you into the family as my daughter with open arms.

From childhood to adulthood you always listened and showed respect to me.

Your love and appreciation for me continued to grow even after you left St. Lucia to the USA.

Although we were many miles apart you never forget me, you always made time for me .

Oh how I cherished the wonderful memories we shared together, to talk, laugh and enjoy each others company.

My girl, God has called you home to be in the company of his Angels

Your spirit will continue to reside in the

She was shy about going up on stage but I encouraged her to go up with me and a group of ladies. We had a blast singing! She always had a smile and kind words. Elisha was a genuine peaceful, loving soul. My sons who are now 21 & 25 were in her Sunday school class at a young age. They send their condolences to Jonathan and Matthew. I will miss you Elisha. “ I am Elisha's next door neighbor. Elisha was like a second mother to me growing up ever since I was about 6 years old. Matthew and I were often asked if we were siblings because Elisha used to pick us up from school together so often that everyone just assumed we lived in the same house. For years I used call every weekend to come over to play video games and hang out with Matthew and Elisha always welcomed me with open arms. She tutored me in math for a few years and helped me where I struggled in school. Nearly every year, She always invited my sister and I over to go to six flags in the summer time with her and the rest of her family, and we'd always go to New York City in the winter to see the tree light up. Those were some of my favorite memories I have. Elisha was such a beautiful and kind soul, and always brought joy and happiness to any room she'd enter. Elisha, I love you with all my heart. And the rest of my family loves and thanks you for all the beautiful memories we've spent together through the last 15 years. Rest in paradise

It has been a while since we last spoke, and I hate that we have to speak like this. Growing up, we shared so many secrets, laughs, and tears. You were like a sister that never let me down. You were my strength when I felt I could not go on, and even though we went our separate ways to pursue our dreams, you have always remained a true and loyal friend that my heart will never forget.

When I heard of your untimely demise, my heart did not cry because I know that you were wonderfully and faithfully made to serve God. You will be missed and the memories of you will live on. I love who you were and who you became. Elisha, my heart is broken for the years you will not have, but my heart smiles for the years we shared as true and loyal friends. I will always remember your beautiful smile.

This is not goodbye, so until we meet again, I love you and will forever miss you. Your footprint is forever etched in my heart. Until we meet again, you are dancing on heaven's floor.

“Tribute to Elisha. The name Elisha means “God Is My Salvation” in the Bible and is of Hebrew origin. When you came to join our family in Saint Thomas from Saint Lucia, you were a young teenager but full of kindness and love. We were new to you, but you did not complain and you kept your beautiful smile and open arms as a loving sister and daughter to Dad. You went to Ivanna Eudora Keen HS where you finished a year early by doubling your class load, and still graduating with honors. Our loving Elisha, you were a light to the Emmanuel household while in Saint Thomas. You later moved to New York after high school and you’ve blossomed even more into the beautiful woman you are. So yes, your name means God is your salvation, and may He welcome you into His arms in Heaven.

“ Message from Lawrence Emmanuel (Elisha's Dad)

Elisha is my first offspring. Her birth inculcated real manhood in me. Isha (as I fondly called her) was my 24th birthday gift which was delayed by just ten days. Among my five children, I placed the three princes between two princesses (Elisha first and Bernia last). I love her dearly. She was the first person that I saw on that fateful Saturday morning. Elisha's demise is so mysterious to me that I cannot even accept that COVID-19 would be so dreadful. Never in my wildest dreams I would have thought that it would be be me who'd be expressing these sentiments on this occasion to to you. Lavi dwól. (Kwéyòl) Life is strange. May God's heavenly angels welcome you home. Here's my poem to you:

UNTIL WE MEET AGAIN

A light from our lives has gone
A voice we loved is still.
A place is vacant within my heart
Which never can be filled.

A bouquet of beautiful memories
Sprayed with a million tears
I wish God would have sprayed you
If just for a few more years

Elisha, we hold you close within our hearts
And there you will remain
To walk with us throughout our lives
Until we meet again

Your vacant place no one can fill
We miss you now and always will
Until daddy meets you again.
