“ Mark and I had been friends since 1970 and reconnected again in 1995. He possessed a quick mind and great memory and was always fun to be around. I hope he has found peace of mind and contentment now.

“ Mark was a unique individual, always open and always sharing his heart. Beginning with meeting he and Mary at a Prudential dinner soon after our offices merged, to touring Hawaii during a later conference, we always had fun. He was so proud of his son Scott and spoke of him constantly. His light will always be missed but not forgotten.

“ We all laughed and cried through the years with Mark. We celebrated his joy in finding and marrying Mary, and even more joy when Scott came along. The pain of his loss, of Mary, was a shared loss in all our hearts. It is with such sadness that we say goodbye to Mark. My wish is that Rosalie and Scott can find some comfort and peace in the days ahead.

“ Don't think of him as gone away
his journey's just begun,
life holds so many facets
this earth is only one.

*Just think of him as resting from the sorrows and the tears
in a place of warmth and comfort
where there are no days and years.*

*Think how he must be wishing
that we could know today
how nothing but our sadness
can really pass away.*

*And think of him as living in the hearts of those he touched... for nothing loved is ever lost
and he was loved so much.*

“ If I should go tomorrow
It would never be goodbye,
For I have left my heart with you,
So don't you ever cry.
The love that's deep within me,
Shall reach you from the stars,
You'll feel it from the heavens,
And it will heal the scars.

“ Mark loved his family, but he especially loved his wonderful son Scott. Scott your dad was always so proud of your accomplishments. Now he looks over you, together with your mom, knowing that you will continue to make him proud with all you will continue to achieve.
