

Abun Nasar Mahmud

April 27, 2017

MAHMUD, Nasar (Abun), 83, of River Edge, NJ passed away Thursday , April 27, 2017.

Beloved husband of Diane Hageman, brother in-law to Harry Palumbo and uncle of Scott Palumbo. Father of Patricia Olski and husband Richard, Deborah Holcomb, and husband David, Andrea Gerace, and husband Anthony, and Robert Mahmud. He is survived by 4 of his 11 siblings. He was the proud grandfather to RJ, James, Nicholas, Alexander, Connor, Matthew, Isabella, and Ryan, and an uncle to many beloved nieces and nephews.

Nasar was predeceased by his former wife, Joan Bodiford.

Nasar was the sole proprietor of an IT and Human Resource consulting firm, which he founded after a career at IBM, and Pan Am.

He was deeply involved in his community, serving on the Local Advisory Committee on Alcohol and Drug Abuse, and held many board positions with in various state and local committees. Nasar enjoyed travel, almost as much as he enjoyed golf, history, politics, and time with his family.

An avid member of the community and cherished and respected family member, Nasar will be missed dearly.

“ Nasar was my father's friend. They both grew up in Lahore, Pakistan. They kept in touch over the years. My father would visit Nasar when he came to the US. I remember driving my parents to visit his house in River Edge, NJ. He was a good and caring friend. I last talked to him on the phone about nine or ten years ago. I had not realized he had passed away. I have fond memories of him. RIP. Aamer Khan.

“My heartfelt condolences to the Mahmud family. May you find comfort in God's act of love shown in John 3:17 "God loved the world so much he gave his only-begotten Son, so that everyone excercising faith in him might not be destroyed but have everlasting life" He gave the life of his son Jesus so we can have the hope of the resurrection. With deepest sympathy.
