“ Dear Agnes,

I am so grateful our lives first crossed paths almost two decades ago and the years of friendship since then. You were my classmate, co-worker, friend, bridesmaid and most importantly a sister whom I love and cherish. I miss you and you will forever hold a special place in my heart. Until we meet again, live each day to its fullest.

“ Dearest Agnes,

Remember when we first met and the first words you said to me inside the elevator of PWC? Until this day, I can clearly remember it....that laugh you had when you found out that we were working on the same floor, spoke the same language, liked the same music. Remember how you would always share the wafers that you had on your desk and which flavor wafers to get next time around. Remember our karaoke days, you would sing your Sammi and Andy songs. What about those Thursday nights when we went into the city and we would be so tired the next morning. It is because of your friendly and outgoing personality that sparked this friendship that we have. Although we may not have been around for each other during every single one of our milestones, the connection that we had was never lost. I'm very thankful that we were able to work together again and I was around for you during your last years. I'm so sorry that I was not able to make it back on time to say good bye. You fought a remarkable battle and you did not lose sight of your bubbly attitude. You are the happiest, bravest and most amazing person I have ever met. You have a laughter and temperament that cannot be replaced. You will be missed and memories of you will be inside all of our hearts forever!!!

“ Dear Agnes,
Though we have not spoken in quite some time, your impact on my life has been profound. You were a truly kind and genuine soul. I can honestly say that our time together showed me not only what a truly remarkable woman you are, but helped me become a better version of myself. Your caring, strength, and playful nature will be missed. The world is now a little darker, a little lonelier since you left us. However, I know that for all who knew you, the lessons, moments, and feelings you shared and taught us will remain for eternity. We are all so sad that you are gone, but through our experiences with you, you will never be forgotten!
Love,
EC

“ I will always remember Agnes as a warm, welcoming person. My first memory of Agnes is her popping her head over the cubicle wall that separated our desks to say hi and introduce herself. After that I knew she was my kind of gal :-) I am saddened that such a fun-loving, kind soul has departed us. I will always hold her memory and will miss her. My deepest condolences go out to her entire family.

“ After crappy days at work and all of us being in the same loooooong meetings, someone would come up with the idea of hitting Bellos next door. It was always a happy fun-filled environment. And, after a few when we would start cracking jokes, making fun of each other's accents, talking about the silliest of things. Agnes would always be laughing her butt off. Her infectious laughter accompanied with her peculiar hand gesture of either slapping the table or her leg. Can't ever forget someone laughing like that.

Those are the days when I got to know you better. And oh boy, that's going to be a big hole to fill.
