I will miss you my sister... our many memories together growing up and the closeness we had as adults. I will miss our phone calls and the laughs as only a close knit family shares. Mama and Daddy are now with you sharing in God's love. Take care my sister till we see each other again...

Mom, Thinking of you a lot lately. Trying to make some changes professionally and just wish you were here for support. I just miss our talks and our silliness. Laughing with you always made my day complete. I constantly feel so empty without you and I always try to find ways to reach you, to remember you, to feel like you are still here. I pray, look at your Facebook page, look at old pics, etc. I know you're with me always but it can be difficult at times to cope. I love you.
