Almeda, also known as Meda to her family, received her education in the public schools of Rocky Mount, North Carolina where she graduated from Nash Central High School.

Soon, thereafter, she moved to New York City where she met and fell in love with Walter Lee Braxton II. Almeda and Walter were united in Holy Matrimony in 1967. The happy couple moved to Teaneck NJ in 1968. God blessed this union with three children, two daughters and one son. Almeda's love and commitment to her family was evident in her role as caretaker and nurse for her husband during his final years. Her union with Walter lasted until his passing in 1999.

Almeda united with the First Baptist Church of Englewood, NJ in 1994. Almeda immediately began to study God's Word. After completing the Membership Essentials Class, she took the Church's Discipleship Trainings. Almeda is known for her impeccable character, leadership and service. Due to her extraordinary values, she strived for excellence in absolutely everything she did. She valued spirituality, community, and family with great sacrifice. Almeda was a community organizer who established the first Hubert Terrace Block Party that continues to the present. She also founded the Williams Family Reunion, which continues to take place every Labor Day weekend. Her commitment to the lord was a daily walk in which she loved Jesus Christ with all of her heart. Hello Cuz:

I'm going to miss my aunt Almeda, and the memories we all have shared with her during the years, the next family reunion will not be the same without her persistence and insurance but God loved her best.
