“ Our deepest condolences to Bob and family
It is still inconceivable that I will not be greeted with Amanda’s raucous laugh or some juicy tidbit when I enter the dog park Amanda was my friend
She was a kind bright funny awesome woman who knew how to listen gave sage advice and loved unconditionally Amanda was the epitome of fierce steely determination; a warrior She was grace under pressure and always showed up dressed to the nines
She was sharp and inquisitive and I was blessed to enjoy many engaging conversations with her Simply put; I will miss her There is something awe-inspiring of the transformation of stranger to a friend
I am so grateful that god placed this incredible light in my life even for the briefest time
She loved me She loved my son She loved my dog Amanda while we suffer the life of a survivor who continues on without your presence, we know that you are at peace, we’re welcomed at the Pearly Gates by your son and sister and we ask that you bestow on us blessings May your soul continually soar higher in the arms of God May your family know only blessings and comfort and take strength from your amazing qualities that you have instilled in all of us Love You Miss A
With gratitude
Annette Charlie Howard and Bella
