

Ann George Koshy

October 30, 2023

Ann Koshy (Baby) was born on May 21, 1942 in Pulikalalummootil, Kozhencherry, Kerala, India to Mr. & Mrs. P. J. Samuel. She grew up in a Christian household and was the second of four siblings – her late sister, Rachel George, and survived by her brother, Samuel P. John (Rajan) and sister, Marykutty Samuel (Molly).

On June 2nd, 1966 Ann was married to George Koshy (Joy) and lived in Bombay. She worked for the Central Government of India in the Seamens Employment Office. They were blessed with two children – Shobhana and Beena, who grew up in Bombay.

In 1985, the family moved from Bombay to the United States and stayed with her sister's family – Samkutty, Marykutty, Glenson, and Diana. They later bought a house and settled near their family members in Teaneck, NJ. Baby was a tenacious worker who knew what she wanted and was determined in accomplishing it. She learned new skills in the medical field and provided for her family as a Respiratory Therapist.

Baby was a member of the Marthoma Church both in Bombay as well as the US, and an active participant in various Sevika Sangham fellowships. She was a very loving and caring person who modeled well what it means to love our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ, even amidst challenging circumstances.

She had a compassionate heart towards others and instilled that love in her children and grandchildren.

Baby is remembered for her smile, hearty laughter, sense of humor, curiosity, and willingness to learn new things. Her grandkids loved being spoiled with their Ammachi's great food – especially her biriyani, potatoes, fish curry, cutlets, and fish fry. Having lived a full life of 81 years, she passed peacefully surrounded by her family on October 30, 2023. She is survived by her husband George (Joy); daughter Shobhana & Reji Joseph; daughter Beena & Manoj Thomas; and grandchildren Derrick & David, Preeya & Ajay.
