“ So many fond memories of your dear "mommy". Ann was so "loved" and well respected. We will cherish Ann's memories forever. God will grant her everlasting peace & rest.

"In the hardest things we do . . . love sees us through." No one truly comprehends the loss that you feel, the sadness that you must be going through . . . but the memories will always be with you. May God's peace be with you everyday.

Ann will always be remembered in our hearts!

“ My aunt Eileen Casey was best friends with Ann, so I had the pleasure of spending time with the both of them over the years. When I think of Ann, I can't help smiling. She was always such a positive, down-to-earth person who had a way of making you feel comfortable. She had a witty sense of humor that often brought you to tears! Although she will be sorely missed, heaven gained an amazing, beautiful soul who is going to keep them laughing up there.
