

Anna Marie Dobler

February 27, 1934 - May 26, 2024

AnnaMarie Dobler, 90, of Teaneck, NJ peacefully went to her heavenly home on Sunday May 26, 2024. Ann was born Feb. 27, 1934 in Cleveland, OH. After dedicating many years to raising her four children, Ann fulfilled her dream of continuing her education to become a licensed practical nurse. Her passion for service to others also continued as a volunteer at Hospice of Dayton, in Ohio.

While in Dayton, she was an active member of St. Mary's Parish. Ann sang in the choir and worked in their food pantry.

Upon moving to New Jersey, she became a faithful member of St. Anastasia's Catholic Church and felt welcomed and loved by her parish community.

Despite her numerous health challenges, she was a joy to all those around her. She loved nature, walking, singing, flowers, and birds. Most importantly, she was devoted to her family.

She was preceded in death by her husband, Anton, in 2002, after fifty years of marriage. She is survived by her beloved family, including her two sisters, Rosemarie and Judy, her children, Kathleen, Theresa, Joseph, and Susan, eight grandchildren, six great-grandchildren, and loving relatives and friends.

A Mass of Christian Burial will be held at St. Anastasia's Catholic Church on Monday June 3rd at 11 a.m. In lieu of flowers, donations in honor of “ My sympathy to the Dobler kids. Your mom was a wonderful mom, sister, wife, grandmother, and aunt. I enjoyed my visits with her and I so appreciated the birthday cards over the years to my kids, Kellie and Patrick. My sympathy to all of you. I'm so glad Rosemarie was able to be there this weekend.
