“ News about Arax’s untimely passing was truly shocking and saddening. She will be greatly missed. Please accept our sincere and heart felt condolences. Arax is a cousin from my father’s side. I remember meeting her for the first time back in 1970, and in recent years whenever she would come out to So. California for vacation. “ 06/20/2008 Dear Mardirosian family. Please accept our deepest sympathy for your loss. Arax was a loving and kind person, and her encouraging words and actions gave away her loving heart. She made a point to visit us whenever she came to California. We will miss her. May God bless you and give you comfort. “ Dear Marsha, Marcus, Debbie and Anthony, Stephanie and Brian, My thoughts and prayers are with you as you go through this difficult time and I share in your mourning the loss of Arax -- kind, sweet, thoughtful -- and the keeper of my childhood memories. Since we've been friends since age 4 (we're friends the LONGEST - she didn't wanted us to call each other OLDEST friends!),I am blessed with scores of great memories, from our early days in my backyard plastic pool to meals at Arax's with exotic foods like Chicken Paprikash, to shift work one college summer inspecting bottles at Owens Illinois, and hundreds more including celebrating 50 years of friendship with a trip to North Carolina and another to DisneyWorld, and her move to her treasured Smithville home, and making memories there with her -- from Cape May to the Lenox Outlet to ... Skeeball! She was a beautiful ribbon weaving through my life, always pleasant, positive, and interested in her family, friends and former students, even as she dealt with growing health issues. I am so thankful to have had her friendship and miss her so much already, but she will be my inspiration and an inspiration to so many others whose lives she touched for decades to come.###imported-begin###Barbara Parente###imported-end##

“ Having been a teaching friend, who became a life-long friend, Arax will be missed by so many. She was a true master teacher, and a devoted friend. Our travels together from as early as 1969, to a San Francisco visit, to sharing recent fun in retirement will be cherished memories of mine. Please accept my sincere condolences as I am still in California and will not be back to say these things in person. Sincerely, Mary Walker-Baptiste and Lou Baptiste##imported-begin##Mary Walker##imported-end##
