She is a graduate of St. Cecilia High School, Englewood, NJ. Arba was the loving daughter of Willa Cherot of Englewood NJ and the late Walter Clark, Sr. Arba worked unselfishly to raise her children and create an all- in- one contractor business called Arba's One Stop Service. In her early years she worked as an Emergency Medical Technician for Tisbury Police Department as well as a Midwife health care provider.

Arba had a fun loving personality that encompassed the love of music, dancing and entertaining. Her love for Martha's Vineyard is well known by all who knew her, she cherished being on the island and always wanted people around her to enjoy life and enjoy all that the island had to offer.

She was a devoted mother of Walter and Erica Holliday of Louisiana, Arba Marte of New Jersey, Erik Wildanger of Massachusetts, and Jamie and Stacy Wildanger of Massachusetts. Arba's memory will also be cherished by her grandchildren (Timothy Wildanger, Kristi Wildanger, Jasselle Wildanger, Michael Marte, and Kyra Wildanger) and many family members and friends.

“ *ARBA and I were childhood friends. We lived across the street from each other and our mothers were close friends. She was a fearless companion and always had a smile on her face. We reconnected later in life and I am so sorry to learn of her passing. She was so rightfully proud of her family. She will be missed by many. Condolences to her family and friends.
