“ Dear Lori & Tommy,
So many memories of our parents governing the neighborhood, desperately trying to keep us safe from ourselves! Your Mom & Dad at one end of the block, mine at the other. It was always true when my Mother would warn me they had "eyes in the back of their heads!" Audrey was the youngest of the neighborhood parents, always in the know, the 1st to get the buzz. She told great stories and was full of humor. We had so many laughs at 221 - how I miss those days.

*I will remember Audrey with love, and a smile on my face.
May she rest in peace.*

*Love you,
Carol Rekucki*
