“ *Dear Don, I'm so sorry for your loss. You all have gone through so much, but also have such wonderful memories that you've shared together. May they be a comfort for you and yours. Do not stand at my grave and weep, I am not there; I do not sleep. I am a thousand winds that blow, I am the softly falling snow, I am the sun on ripened grain, I am the gentle autumn rain. When you awaken in the morning's hush I am the swift uplifting rush Of quiet birds in circling flight. I am the soft star-shine at night. Do not stand at my grave and cry, I am not there; I did not die. With much fondness,
