“ Never have I ever met such a wonderful, charming, caring and warm individual! Ben always had a kind word to say about everyone. I knew Ben through the Knights of Columbus of Teaneck where he was a man of his faith and convictions. He dedicated his time to this organization on every level moving along to becoming the Grand Knight and advancing to the Faithful Navigator of the Fourth Degree. Ben was a dedicated man to both his faith and the Knights and I will never forget meeting him and his lovely wife Louise at the many functions that were held at the clubhouse. They were regulars at just about every event, Ben seated with his group commonly and playfully called his “harem!” Ben’s smile could light up the room for sure! God bless you Ben, you will be missed!! Vivat Jesus!!
