“ My deepest sympathy for your loss of your Dear Loved One. You are in my thoughts and prayers. May the "Father of tender mercies and the God of all comfort" (2 Corinthians 1:3) be with you and your family at this difficult time. The Bible clearly shows that there is real hope to see our love ones again. This promise of a resurrection hope that you will see your loves ones again is extended to you and your love ones. May the resurrection hope comfort you and your family during this time of distress. Continue to lean on God for comfort. If you would like to know more what the Bible really teaches regarding our loved ones who has died, please contact me at harrisjlinda@aol.com. May God be with you on your journey.##imported-begin##LH##imported-end##

“ Maria, Judy, and Ralph, Both Dan and I extend to you all our heartfelt condolences on the loss of your sister Bernadette. Understandably this was sudden and a shock, sometimes these things can never be explained. I wanted to share from my sister Patricia who also was saddened to learn of this loss and to convey her sympathies to you all. Pat remembers fondly the times she spent as a youngster with Bernadette, having been in a similar age range. Bernadette, is at peace with all the family members, Atti and Doyles alike! Prayers to you all, Bob Hermann & Dan Joraanstad##imported-begin##Robert Hermann##imported-end##
