“ It was fun spending all those years at the shore just enjoying the lagoon and my swims out to the river with Charlie....while Bev was busy making her special Mac and Tuna salad, that her nephews still ask me for the recipe....I do miss all the stops on the way home from the shore and all the nights we played cards....it was a fun trip and will see you in the future Bev and Charlie, both who have always been there for me whenever I needed them....In the meantime enjoy the company of our children and love ones....Love you guys and miss you like crazy. The last 20 years have been hard enough with us in Florida and you guys in NJ.

“ Hi Jeff. So sorry to hear about your Mom. I have many fond memories of both your parents. Your Dad for giving me my first and only terrifying motorcycle ride, and your Mom for always hollering out the back door to "be nice" when we were in the pool. Loved looking through all the photographs.
Sincerely, Carol Stacy Chichester (Somerville, NJ)
