I only meant him twice but I could see and feel he was a very special servant of the lord. I could feel the love he had for his wife and children ,and that's rare these days he will be missed,wished I'd known him longer. Gwendolyn O'Doherty pastor Bruce Berliner was a wonderful man of God on my first encounter with him in 2009. I had invited him preach the the word on Fathers day 2009 , when I serve as president of the Men department at the Christ Assembly Lutheran Church on Staten Island New York. He came back to preach again and again. He was loved by my congregation. May his soul rest in peace till we meet. Yark Z. Beyan...

“ Bruce, I remember my first kiss and how you never let me catch you on Sadie Hawkins day. How you would laugh getting away. We were 12 and 13. We tore up the dance floor in the teen room and on the pool patio. We were the only manhattanites and we had soul. Nobody danced like us. Wherever you were, you were the Mayor. Knowing and talking to everyone. You had a spark to you that nobody else did. Even to this day. I never told you this but you so reminded me of my Uncle Marty. How you teased me not letting me in the teen room because there was no such thing as twelveteen and everyone was at least 13. You were always so take charge. Even as an adult. A few summers ago we met with Robby at Monticello and we asked a man to take a picture of the 3 of us and how we all cracked up when he took a picture of his own eye. Then I almost did it. How hard we all laughed. Oh, I almost forget how you kept up with me playing ping pong. How you comforted me one Labor Day at the softball field when nobody would let me go to Mardi. Your light will burn for eternity. You will go wherever I go and watch over me and everyone you touched. How proud you were of your children and how you lit up even more when you talked about them. You will be in my thoughts, prayers and in my heart forever. It's with a heavy heart I write a memorial for one of my oldest friends who I have always loved and always will. Taken way too soon. I know you understand my not being there for you tomorrow. I know you also know that I may not be there physically, but I will say a prayer and you will be in my heart and soul. May your light shine down upon us for eternity. I know your candle will never go out and forever shine.

“ To the Berliner family:

Although it's difficult today to see beyond the sorrow, it often helps when you look back at the memory, love, guidance, support, and wisdom that our love one has given to help comfort you tomorrow. Just know that the Arthur, Esa, and Brown family are here for your family. Bruce was a wonderful human being who will always be remembered.

Pastor Bruce made an enormous effect on me at FEM. His preaching of the WORD was one of a kind. He spoke with such affirmation and confirmation which penetrated one's soul. His passing touched me deeply. What a great man of God. My deepest condolences, prayers and wish to his family for strength and encouragement during these trying times. A faithful listener to his word, Hazel John
