“ DEATH DOES NOT DISCRIMINATE. GRIEF KNOWS NO BOUNDARIES.

*God saw you getting tired
And a cure was not meant to be
So he put his arms around you
And whispered “Come to me”*

*With tearful eyes we watched you
As you passed away
Since death is all-encompassing?
We’ll meet again some day.*

I will remember you as a sweet and loving person who showed me great respect on my visits to the USA. You would always sit close to me, hold my hand and willingly assist me in any way you could. I felt proud of you and knew in my heart that your parents had done a wonderful job of raising you to be a fine young woman.

Today I feel the pain and grief of losing a love one. You were so young so beautiful but who am I to question God. I know that you are in a better place. I will miss you but I will also find solace in the beautiful memories I have of you.

From your grandma Eunice and all your Trinidad uncles, aunts and cousins.

To my Grand daughter Camille K Mason
