“ Dear Matt, I am so sorry about what happened to Cara. She had such a big heart, such a kindness and caring way about her. I was blessed by the time that I shared with both of you, in getting to know you both and the strength and depth of your love for one another. She died being the person that she always had been, thinking of other people and their pain and wanting to help. She was so loving and loved you so much. I am just so sorry I can't tell you. I am glad though that I got the chance to know her, she really touched my heart, I wanted you to know that.##imported-begin##Maria##imported-end##

“ Cara, we did not have enough time. But when we did, we shared so much laughter and tears. It was nice to be around you; a person who lived her life with no regrets. We will be together again soon, and this time, time will be on our side.##imported-begin##Sherice White##imported-end##

“ To All Who Loved Cara~ I didn't know Cara but I am deeply saddened that this beautiful young woman who had a right to enjoy her new life and raise a family with the man she loved was taken in such a senseless way. I do realize that words are shallow sounding right now however I sincerely wish you all much love! May Cara's loving & compassionate spirit live on in all of you who were blessed to have known her! May you find peace/solace in how she(Cara)lived and not let how she (Cara)passed define your lives. In My Prayers...Angela V. Manahawkin, NJ##imported-begin##Angela##imported-end##

“ To Cara's family, I never met your wonderful angel but want you to know how sorry I am at her untimely passing. I was so sad to hear that someone so sweet and caring who was trying to help was taken from you much too early. Remember all the good things and I'm sure she will be watching over all of you from heaven.##imported-begin##Karen Harsh##imported-end##
