“ Happy 99th Birthday Daddy 🎂! You sadly left my family and me four and a half years ago. We miss you, your smile, your words of encouragement and wisdom, your hugs, your laughter and especially your love for me, my children and my grandchildren. Flowers and a birthday balloon 🎈 were left to celebrate your birthday. We prayed for you and sung Happy Birthday to you. We wished you never left us but it gives us comfort to know you are with mommy, your sweetheart 😊❤️. We love you so much. Love always and forever your daughter Annette and my family! 🥹😊❤️💕

“ Grandpa

Thank you for being here. It's an honor for me to be here celebrating my Grandpa's life.

He was a special kind of guy. You couldn't say a bad thing about him. And if you could, trust me, there was something wrong with you.

How could I possibly put into words how incredible he was or how proud I am to have called him my Grandpa...and my buddy. The truth is...I can't.

I can't put into words how in awe I am of his bravery as a WWII veteran and a prisoner of war.

Or how inspired I am by the entrepreneurial prowess he had in running his butcher shop, Carmine's Meat Market.

I couldn't tell you how much of a loving, kind, caring and generous man he was.

I couldn't begin to describe how much he loved his family, and how much we loved him.

And I wouldn't know where to begin trying to capture his personality, his charm, and his sense of humor.

But what I can tell you is that if you had a chance to spend time with my Grandpa throughout his incredible 94 years of life, you were blessed.

I know I was blessed.

I was blessed to have him as my Grandpa all of these years, to teach me, guide me, and support me.

I remember when he taught me to drive, and he helped me prepare for my driver's test. We had the chairs and brooms out in the Paramus high school parking lot and I was learning on his old caprice classic. Not a small car by any means. Needless to say after hours of practice I got my license and he had taught me so well that years later living in the City and parking in the street was a breeze....When there was a spot.

He was an incredibly handy man who took amazing pride in everything he did. He didn't just show me how to mow the lawn, he also taught me how to fix the lawnmower.

We fixed and worked on everything together, from tune ups on the cars, to painting, tiling, and even plumbing and electric. There was nothing he couldn't do, and nothing he couldn't teach me.

If I were to list the things he taught me, we'd be here for about 34 years, but Grandpas got a hot date with my grandma tonight so we've gotta get this show on the road.

In case you haven't gotten the picture yet, I am very proud of my Grandpa and it has been an amazing honor being his Grandson, or as he would call me "His right hand man".

We did everything together and I was there for him like he's always been there for me.

Grandpa, I love you and I miss you more than words can say. I will miss coming home to visit you and our driving around, our out outings to the park, our lunches at the Diner and our Dinners in Hoboken.

I'll miss seeing your face light up at the mere sight of Lara and Tyler. I'll miss you telling me about the old days, and how simple life used to be.

I'll miss hearing you express your endless love and admiration for Grandma.

I'll miss you telling me how lucky I am to have such a special mother, and how lucky you were to have my Mom as such a loving daughter.

I'll miss the love and respect you had for Allison as a mother.

I'll miss our late night talks during our sleepovers, and our lazy *mornings waking up late the next day.

I'll miss our almost daily phone calls on my bike ride to work.
I'll miss your firm handshakes and your comforting hugs.
I'll miss your words of wisdom and never ending support and encouragement.
I'll miss your quick witted jokes, your smile and your laughter.
I'll miss your warm heartedness and your love.*

Most of all I'll miss you.

Your spirit, your love, and your personality lives on in me, and for that I am eternally grateful.

Keep watching over us and rest easy.

I love you buddy.

*Love Always
Dennis Carmine*
