“ Dear Joe, Darren and Elizabeth. Please accept George's and my sincerest condolences. Carol was a wonderful person and a dear friend. It never mattered if we hadn't seen each other for a year, it always seemed like it was only yesterday. I was so sure I would see her again. I'm glad at least that I got to talk to her last month. My heart goes out to all of you at this time. Love and Blessings, Lorraine Kirschbaum##imported-begin##Lorraine & George Kirschbaum##imported-end##

“ Dear Joe, Johnnie & Family: Please accept my deepest sympathy for the untimely passing of Carol. As you all know, Carol was a wonderful wife, mother and sister and your loss has to be overwhelming. I am sorry I cannot be there in person but you are all in my thoughts and prayers. We must remember Carol is at peace and her suffering is over. May God watch over you and give you the strength at this difficult time. With Deepest Sympathy and Friendship, Always, Lynn##imported-begin##Lynn Walter##imported-end##

“ Rest In Peace, beautiful cousin, Carol. You were so vibrant in life and memories of you will live on in my heart forever. I can't imagine life without you in it...you had so many wonderful qualities and talents. I loved your sense of humor most of all, and the fact that we always seemed to pick up right where we left off whenever we talked or saw each other. It was as if time stood still. I love you, Carol and will always cherish our last afternoon together in Marco Island. God gave us the opportunity to see each other one last time. If only we knew then...perhaps I would have hugged you even tighter. To Joe, Elizabeth, Darren, Johnny, Mary Ann and girls...may you find comfort in knowing how much she loved all of you and may you celebrate the good times you all shared. She is rejoicing in heaven's splendor and no longer in pain. I thank God for that. Love you all...##imported-begin##Eileen Murphy Moody##imported-end##
