

Catherine "Bernie" Moran

February 22, 1948 - September 3, 2017

Moran, (nee O'Shea) Catherine, known to most as Bernie, 69, of River Edge passed away, surrounded by her family, on Sunday, September 3, 2017. She was born in Clonmel, Ireland and raised in Ennis, Ireland. She moved to Texas, working as a nurse, before relocating to New York. She planned to return home to Ireland but met the man of her dreams and stayed. Bernie married Luke Moran in 1980 and lived in The Bronx, NY, before finally settling in River Edge, NJ.

Bernie is survived by her son Michael Moran, daughter Maria Sullivan and her husband Mike, granddaughters Molly and Keeva Sullivan, and sister Finnoula McManus. She is predeceased by her husband Luke, who died Monday, August 28th, brother Liam, and parents Mortimer and Ita O'Shea.

Bernie spent her life caring for others. When she wasn't taking care of her children, she worked as a labor and delivery nurse, recently retiring from St. Mary's Hospital in Passaic, NJ.

Bernie was a loving and caring person. She gave to many charities and made friends wherever she went. She loved people and enjoyed nothing more than to stop and chat with anyone, even those whom she just met. She will be greatly missed by her friends and family.
