

Cecelia Fleming

December 26, 2024

Cecelia Fleming (née McCann) passed away peacefully at her home on December 26, 2024. She was born on July 30, 1942 to Thomas and Annie (née Horkan) McCann in Magheraboy, Kilmovee, Co. Mayo, Ireland, where she grew up on a farm with her large, loving family. Ceil always had a quick sense of humor and was loved by all who met her. When she first came to America, Ceil worked as a waitress in Schrafts Restaurant. After raising her daughter Mary Ann she returned to work as a Nurses Aid at Holy Name Hospital in Teaneck. There Ceil found her true calling: Brightening her patients' days with her wit and charm, while giving them skilled and compassionate care. Ceil retired from Holy Name to care for her ailing husband.

Ceil is survived by her loving daughter Mary Ann; her brothers Johnny and Tommy in Ireland, Jimmy in England; sisters Mary Kelly and Margaret Smith in New York, and Kathleen Keogh and Patricia Moynihan in Ireland; and many adoring nieces and nephews. She is predeceased by her husband, John, her parents, and her sisters Bridget Lehane and Anne DiLaura.

Family and friends are invited to visit Thursday 4-7PM at the Volk Leber Funeral Home, 789 Teaneck Rd., Teaneck. A Mass of Christian Burial will be celebrated on Friday at 11AM St. Anastasia RC Church. Interment to follow at Mt. Carmel Cemetery.

In lieu of flowers, donations can be made in Ceil's name to The Michael J. Fox Foundation or St. Jude Children's Research Hospital.

“ Condolences to Mary Ann on the death of her mother Ceil. Ceil left Ireland when I was young but I will always remember her visits to Ireland and mine to the USA to see her. Memories of dancing and singing as she was so full of fun. You will be sadly missed, your sister Kathleen xx
