“ Charles was my first college professor at Mohawk Valley Community College in 1972. He changed my life and mentored me to continue my education eventually earning a Ph.D. He exposed me to new cultural experiences and impacted my life in many ways. We met often when I was a professor at Baruch college in New York, and later he visited us in Rochester New York. Charles was a good friend and always enjoyed a good political debate as well as playing monopoly. We kept in touch every year and I know that he enjoyed the fruit basket I sent him every Christmas. He was a gentle man with much wisdom. It was an honor to know him and I will miss him. Now there is a void in my life.

“ Mr. D'Arcy was a school teacher of mine @ Stevens Academy in Hoboken, NJ many years ago. We remained friends thru the years.

I spent a lot of time with Mr. D'Arcy when he lived in Brooklyn, NY and we met often for lunch when he worked in NYC. He was a good friend and mentor.

We lost contact for several years until I found Mr. D'Arcy living in Teaneck, NJ. Because of the Covid-19 pandemic and his frail condition we stayed in touch by letter.

Mr. D'Arcy was a good man. I will always remember Mr. D'Arcy and he will always live in my heart.
