“ Chuck and I worked together at two companies during the 1970's and 1980's. He was just a great guy and a pleasure to count him as a colleague and friend. I had not seen him in a while, but he was someone you were grateful to share a part of your life. Prayers for his family and may he Rest in Peace. 🙏

“ Charlie you were a true gentleman and a beautiful person. I will fondly remember our many talks throughout the years and our love for pizza. My family and I will miss your kindness and seeing you sitting at the choir in church. You were one of the rare people that someone would have been beyond blessed to know and to call you Friend. God Bless Your family and know you will always be remembered with Love.
