My most sincerest condolences to Barbara & all of the Shoop family. I grew up with Charlie since grammar school days at Saint John the Baptist all through Pascack Valley HS. Please know how so many of us loved & respected Charlie...a true friend to many. Charlie was so kind & so loyal to everyone. I wish I could be there with all of you to pay my respects. You are all in my thoughts & prayers. May God Grant Charlie eternal peace & May he rest in the sweetest peace Amen ☀️🕊️🕊️🕊️

🙏🙏🙏💕💕
Respectfully,
Geri (Payne) Ramos & Family

Charlie and I grew up together at St Johns and Pascack Valley and his mom was good friends with my mom. Mrs Shoop was such a lovely lady and it was easy to see where Charlie got his nice personality. I'm so sorry for his loss, for all the Shoop family.

“ I am truly sorry for his lovely wife Barbra! The first time I met Charlie was When I was in my young 20's and I got a job in a metal shop in Emerson NJ. Charlie was one of the the employees there at the time. I didn't know him or anyone else for that matter. But Charlie made me feel like we knew each other for years! He helped me acclimate myself with the place and the work. He helped with so many things too! But it was his kindness I will never forget. And although we didn't see each other often, he and his wife Barbra would make me and my wife Justine feel as comfortable as he did when I was working with him in that metal shop so many years ago. Fly now my friend, for you are truly free. 🥹
