

Charles P. Vialotti

February 24, 2009

Dr. Charles P. Vialotti passed away peacefully after a brief illness in his 100th year. Devoted husband of Rose since 1941. Loving father of Charles, Jr. and the late Lynn Harper. Esteemed physician who retired just 3 years ago after 70 years of compassionate devotion to his patients. Avid fisherman and skilled artist whose vast collection of sketches delight all who have seen his work. His broad smile and positive life attitude will be missed by all. Services were private followed by interment in a family mausoleum in South Hampton, NY. Donations in his name to Villa Marie Claire Hospice, 12 West Saddle River Road, Saddle River, NJ 07458 are appreciated by the family.

“ Aunt Rose and Charles, I am very sorry for your loss. I will remember Uncle Charlie for his positive attitude and his radiant smile. The time I got to spend with him and my grandfather fishing at the beach will forever be etched in my mind as one the happiest times in my life. I only hope I will be able to make a similar impact on my family someday. My thoughts and prays are with you. Matt##imported-begin##Matthew Bronner##imported-end##

“ To the Vialotti Family: Mary and I were sorry to hear about the passing of Dr. Vialotti. Dr. Vialotti was my doctor when I was a young boy in New York City, (259 West 4th Street, NYC) He brought me into this world! A couple of years ago, I was in New York City, and I was informed that Dr. Vialotti was still in practice on 6th avenue. My wife and I made it a point to stop by and visit with him. He remembered our family name!----I thanked him for his service. He was a great doctor and a very sensitive person. I will miss him.
