

Christiana R. Mills

October 20, 2013

Christiana Mills, 103 years old, died Sunday, 20 October, 2013. She died at home. She suffered heart failure; she had the Alzheimer's form of Dementia for years.

She was born in Parson's Village, St. Kitts, to Catherine and Abraham. She was the last of twelve. Mary "Mabel", Ellen, Caroline, Georgiana, Oattie, Alfred, Milton, George, Henry, and twins (died shortly after birth), were her siblings. Her offspring were Gloria (deceased), and Conrad Whitfield. Grandchildren are Purnell, Chandra, Garfield and Sabrina. The next generation are Shirley, Tiffany, Gregory, Nicholas, Trent, Travis, Diamond, Devon and Dereon. There is daughter-in-law Rosa and granddaughter-in-law Tamika.

In St. Kitts, Christianna was a seamstress. She could look at patterns and make wedding dresses. She was good. She played piano, organ, and was a Sunday School teacher at Bethel Moravian Church. Her brother Alfred brought her to America in January, 1959. She worked as a maid for years. She enjoyed cooking, baking, dancing, friends and family. Seeing the joy she received from visiting with her sisters and brothers was heartwarming. With her friends, laughter abounded. Mount Washington Presbyterian Church and the Rain Senior Center comforted her. She was loud with her prayers and her singing.

She comforted us, loved us, took care of us and did the best she could for as long as she could. She was loved and will be missed.
