“ Please accept our prayers and sympathy on the passing of our Aunt Clara. Although a sad time especially to her children Bobby and Barbara and sister Marie, we should also be happy to know the wonderfully long, loving, and productive life that Aunt Clara by touching many and leaving her mark and memories on all that she came in contact with. With a life well lived , Aunt Clara will be remembered and missed by everyone for all her generosity and kindness. Her heart was always in the right place and I hope that all of us have benefited from the life she led. May you find peace and comfort knowing that her loss is felt by all that knew and loved her.
