“ Dear Family of Concetta Marvuglio-Schwank I am sorry to hear of her death. I learned about her passing by accident while searching the internet for another name. I met Concetta in 1960-1962. She was my fourth and fifth grade teacher at P.S. 132 located at 320 Manhattan Avenue, Brooklyn, New York. She was friendly with another teacher, Dolores Zaino who also died this past year. I remember Concetta who was Miss Marvuglio as a very strict teacher. She taught us how to think, organize our thoughts and write. She is certainly a fond memory of my childhood. I am sure that all students through the years have fond memories of her. My prayers for her repose and for your consolation. Sincerely, Msgr. Guy Massie- Saint Andrew the Apostle Church- 6713 Ridge Blvd- Brooklyn, New York.##imported-begin##Msgr. Guy A Massie. ##imported-end##
