

Cynthia O'Neill

January 15, 2017

O'Neill, Cynthia "Cindy", 34, of Bogota, passed away on January 15, 2017. Beloved daughter of Joseph and Linda O'Neill. Dear sister of Matthew O'Neill. Dear granddaughter of Dolores and the late Albert Myers and the late Gertrude and Joseph O'Neill. Born with spina bifida and trached from birth, Cindy could never talk but she signed volumes. "To know Cindy was to love Cindy." She brought out the best in anyone she met and had a true enthusiasm for everything in her life. She loved so many things: her family and friends; her computer; her room; texting; book signings; Disney world, especially Chip and Dale; the Poconos; jigsaw puzzles; Kenny Rogers; Ellen DeGeneres, Jane Lynch, and Barney and Bethenny Frankel! Cindy graduated from Bleshman School in Paramus and was a member of the Wallington High School Art club which was one of her biggest honors.

Cindy will be so missed by all of her family including her Godparents Arlene and Joseph Lopez, her aunts and uncles, Kathleen and the late Frank Fisher, Judy and Richard Vanderoef, Sharon O'Neill and Joy Montroni and her cousins Steven, Anna, Danny, Kevin, Timmy, Bethany, Michelle, Brian, Lorelle, Kelly, Chris, Kristen, Jason, Jill, Ricky, and Billy.

Her family would also like to thank all the people at HUMC and Columbia hospitals for all the love and support they gave Cindy through the years and to her favorite doctors, Dr. Maria Ramos and Dr. Emmanuel Santomauro and her nurse Olive Grant. Cindy's Life was truly a miracle and who ever reads this today please go forward and take a small part of Cindy's essence with you...

be kind, be happy, enjoy a good laugh, always look forward, love one another, and get the best out of every moment.

“ Cindy,

My heart is broken. For all the years I have known you, you had such a beautiful spirit and absolutely lived life to the fullest. You did not let ANYTHING stop you! I am so grateful that your parents allowed me to introduce you to the technological world, which opened up a whole new world of communication for you and a wonderful friendship for us. I will treasure our times spent chatting through instant messenger for hours about school, Disney, our families, my singing, your crafts and videos, etc. You always had so much to say and always made me laugh. You were there for all my concerts and plays in high school--cheering me on --my biggest fan who I always looked forward to seeing in the audience. After high school, you continued to keep tabs on me daily through instant messenger while I was in college. I am so glad you got to share in the special occasions of my life like my high school graduation, bridal shower and my wedding. I'll forever treasure the pictures I have of us from my wedding on the dance floor and you stealing the show as you danced with your father. Thank you for your friendship. I'm going to miss you, Cind. Heaven sure gained a heck of an angel! Play your videos as loud as you want and continue to spread your love up in heaven! I love you!

“ Cindy was an amazing person. It's no surprise that she lived her life to the fullest it could be because she had an amazing family. I hope it gives you all comfort knowing how much love and support you gave her.

“ Linda, Joe and Matthew,

You should be proud of yourself for taking such good care of Cindy. I remember Snooky and Cindy used to joke around about who was "boss." I guess she got her sense of humor from her grandfather. I hope you find comfort knowing she's in heaven with him now.

Love,

“ Heroes can be defined in many ways. I see the silent-quiet ones to most often be most prolific. Life's challenges are most commonly presented and handled privately and within small circles of trusted comrades. I have had the opportunity to work intensely with women and men of all socio-economic places in life, and from a multitude of venue origins, race, religion etc... In that context, Cindy, Linda, Joe and Matthew are among a very small group of people who I consider to be true heroes in the most comprehensive sense. As a family they are most uncommonly truly good people. I consider Linda and Joe to be my better in many significant respects. They have continuously humbled me in the manner in which they share love. Matthew has been a fine son, brother and young man. I believe that Cindy understood her situation, most importantly how well she was and is loved.

I know that Betty, Beth and Amy, along with so many others have similar, if not, more robust and comprehensive sentiments.

May god bless Cindy, Linda, Joe and Matthew.

“ When I think of you Cindy, I think of that magnificent smile that lit up any space you were in. I will always remember you being in the audience at WHS when my son and daughter were in plays and concerts. I will remember the joyous surprise of "running into" you and your family in Disney World, one of your favorite places! We have that in common! I wish Peace and Strength to your family as they must learn to go on without your Light and Love here on Earth. Dear Cindy, I hope you spend your time in Heaven dancing and singing!
