“ Our family lost a very kind and loving man.

A gentle man, a true Familyman, a great brother, soldier, loving husband, son-in-law; Uncle; an adventurous foodie, world traveler, gardner, fig grower; a Yorkie dad who was also a music and movies aficionado. A proud Irishman with exquisite Italian tastes.

From the Bronx, New York, Viet Nam, to New Jersey, Florida, Maryland, and Delaware, he was loved and respected by so many.

His was a life of service.

Service to his family, to his country, to the people with different abilities and special needs.

We love you.
