

Dawn Viola

October 22, 2022

I am heartbroken to announce the passing of my beloved Aunt Dawn Van Vugt-Viola. She passed away peacefully Saturday night (October 22, 2022); just shy of her 66th birthday. My aunt enjoyed watching the Hallmark Channel, taking long rides with her son, listening to music (🎵hey 98.6, it's good to have you back again...). But, most of all, she loved being able to chat with loved ones and people watch on her front stoop. She left her mark on all the lives she encountered through the years. She leaves behind her son, Rob Viola, her father George Van Vugt (Jerrilyn Coulter), her brother George, sister-in-law MaryAnn, brother-in-law Louis Severino, nieces and nephews (Maria (Victor), Jennifer, LJ, Nicky and Chris) and many great nieces and nephews whom she adored. I find great peace in her recent talking of dreams that seemed like reality where my mother and her mother (whom she was preceded in death by) came to chat with her while she was in the hospital. Rest In Peace My Aunt Dawnie, sending you a thousand kisses ready for you to catch. Love your Ria & your entire family. And wishing you a happy heavenly birthday.

Tribute Wall

“ Dawn Viola

October 08, 2023 at 09:59 PM

“ Dawn Viola

October 08, 2023 at 06:27 PM

“ Our memories will always be in my heart ❤️

joanne Carlucci - April 19, 2023 at 09:12 AM

“ My heart is broken to hear that my friend Dawn passed away. I knew her since we were 7 years old and my heart is filled with wonderful memories. Dawn will be missed from the gang at Palisades Park.

Patricia Alvarez - April 18, 2023 at 08:22 PM