“ Dean was one of the smartest, wisest, and best students during the years we were both undergraduates at Whitman College (1961-65). After graduation I followed some of his career and enjoyed reading his short stories and other fiction writing. In the spring of 2015, I looked forward to seeing him at our class of 1965 reunion at Whitman. He didn't attend, he later explained when we "skyped" because he was having troubles walking long distances. My condolences to all of Dean's family members and friends.

“ *My sincerest sympathy to the Lambe family. Dean was my manager during the time I worked at Eisai. He was the best manager I've ever had and he continued to be my mentor after we both left Eisai. His sense of humor was refreshing, and I am lucky to have had him in my life.
I will miss our calls, texts and e-mails and he will not be forgotten.*

“ *My deepest condolences to the Lambe family.
I worked with Dean at Eisai Pharmaceuticals. He was always such a kind and happy man that was always willing to talk and explain things to you.
He will be remembered fondly.*
