

Deborah Fong Yen Eng

April 7, 2020

Deborah (Debbie) Fong Yen Eng, 52, of Teaneck, NJ passed away on April 7, 2020. Beloved daughter of the late Daniel Eng. She is survived by her loving mother Margaret Eng, sister Karen (and brother-in-law Samuel) Karkis, brother Jonathan, and sister Michele (and brother-in-law Jonathan) Coppola. She also leaves behind her adoring nieces and nephew: Jasmine, Zoe, Genevieve, and Anthony; in addition to her many aunts, uncles, and cousins. Debbie was a devoted daughter, sister and aunt. She was a graduate of Teaneck High School Class of 1985 and Dominican College Class of 1989. She loved spending time with her family while at amusement parks, the beach, or traveling. Her love of the Boston Red Sox, New York Jets, and Bruce Springsteen was unwavering. She worked in retail for over 30 years including Nobody Beats the Wiz, Filene's, Limited, and Crate and Barrel; and was most recently employed by Home Goods in Parsippany, NJ. Funeral arrangements were entrusted to Volk Leber Funeral Home in Teaneck, NJ. A celebration of Debbie's life will be held at a future date.

“ It is so difficult to express in words the loss of Debbie. She was such a sweet, generous and kind person who always smiled and gave joy to all who knew her. We were very lucky to share many family gatherings with her and to see how much she loved doting on her nieces and nephew. She was selfless and cared about everyone, especially her mom. We cannot believe that she is gone and our tears are never-ending. God speed Debbie and may the angels guide you to be with your Dad. You will be dearly missed and know that you were greatly loved. Our deepest condolences to the family.
