June 17, 2021

Delores Schuster Kusel, 86, of Hillsboro Beach, Florida and formally of Oradell, NJ passed away on June 17, 2021. She was the devoted wife of her recently deceased husband, Henry Kusel and a loving and supportive mother to David Scott Kusel (Kim) of Ridgewood, NJ, and Jennifer K. Donovan (Patrick) of New Canaan, CT. Her grandchildren Sean, Matthew, Elizabeth, Stephanie, and Aidan will miss her lively phone conversations, constant encouragement and silly cards. Delores enjoyed gardening, decorating, traveling and was an avid reader. She was devoted to Grace Episcopal Church for over 40 years, serving the church in many ways, particularly the Alter Guild, where she was known for her meticulous care of the sacred vessels, linens and vestments.

She was born in NYC and grew up in Milltown, NJ. She met her husband at the Jersey shore, when she was working in the corporate offices of The Boy Scouts of America. They married in 1957 and began a family. Delores spent her life sharing her love, intellect, faith and grace, with her family and close friends.
