

Donald Lamadore

July 7, 2010

Lamadore, Donald, age 79, of Teaneck, died July 7, 2010. Donald lost his courageous 8 year battle with COPD/Emphysema. He died peacefully in his home. He fought a good fight and his will to live and love of his family kept him going. Don was a humble man with a sense of humor like no other. Wherever he went he had a joke and a smile for everyone. Don was well known throughout Bergen County as he was as self employed house painter (Color Harmony) who left his mark on many municipal buildings as well as many private homes. He was loved by everyone who came in contact with him. Don leaves behind his loving wife of 53 years, Ella Lamadore nee (Heisler), as well as three daughters, Madeline and Joe Brenner, Charlotte and Joe Ottilo. Donna Lamadore-Greenfield and Lawrence Vivian, He was predeceased by another daughter, Diane Burger. He also leaves behind 7 grandchildren, 7 great grandchildren and a host of nieces and nephews who will miss their Poppop and Uncle Donald terribly. Family and friends are invited to visit Saturday, July 10, 2010 from 2-4PM and 7-9PM at the Volk Leber Funeral, 789 Teaneck Road, Teaneck, NJ.

“ Sorry to hear the passing of Don. He will be missed. Don did some painting and wallpapering for us when we first came to Bergenfield,NJ. Don was a wonderful person and a heart of gold. Loved to smile all the time. Don loved his wife and children so very much. I am blessed that I got to meet Don. Could never meet another painter like Don. He loved his work and it showed. God Bless you all. Lynn & Bernie##imported-begin##Lynn Kruk##imported-end##

“ Dear Donna and Family: My sincerest condolences on the loss of your Dad, Husband, Poppop and Uncle Donald. We just lost our Mom, 72, to cancer in March of this year, so I can certainly empathize with you. Mom always enjoyed Don's sense of humor and good nature! Please know that my thoughts and prayers are with all of you.##imported-begin##Robin Lyddon Hartman##imported-end##
