“ Pete and I loved Don, he was a great guy. We met him through his Marine league and Pete enjoyed his talks and conversations with him so much. Don will be greatly missed, he has left a positive impact on all he has met. Our condolences and prayers to the family. We were blessed to have know Don and pray he is at peace.

“ I worked with Don at Pneumafil and always enjoyed his sense of humor. I think the most fun I had with him was our trips to a family-run Italian restaurant in Schenectady. He always asked the server for a plate of anchovies to eat with his bread and olive oil. He was a good man.
