“ Dear Dad Otis
I hope you are building ships in the sky and coaching the Mets (next season) to success with the Carols. You will be missed. Love,
MaryAlice

What Sal and I remember most about Don is how he told a joke. He was a good story teller. You and my friend Carol are now together.

We know that Don and Carol are now together again, but my husband, Ray, I'm sure is among the welcoming committee in heaven for Don! They always had a wonderful bond with all their "conversations" when they'd see each other! And, of course, their love of the Mets can not be disputed!!!

Wendy, Kevin and Jennifer, I am so sorry to learn today about the passing of your father, a wonderful man, husband and father. Take solace in the fact that he is finally at peace and reunited with your mother in heaven. I will miss saying hello to him on his daily walks around the block. So sad to see another long time resident of the neighborhood pass on. He will be missed.

In my little time working with you, you were very charming, charismatic, loving, caring, funny person, I look forward every opportunity to come to be with you laughing and playing ball 🏈. Thank you for giving me such a wonderful opportunity to meet and share your thoughts together. I miss you so much. You're with your lovely wife together in heaven abodes. We meet again someday. So long good listener (listening) So long Donald! □□□□□❤️❤️❤️❤️❤️❤️❤️
