“ Since I learned too late about my cousin Dorothy's passing, I was unable to personally pay my respects. I am sorry I was not able to be there to personally pay my respects and say good-by. I will remember Dorothy's warm smile and compassionate, kind nature. I extend my deepest sympathy to all family and friends.
With sympathy, Ruth Schlomann Fabery

“ Our every-smiling bowling partner, Dotty - we'll miss your encouraging prods. No matter how badly we did, you made us laugh at ourselves. As we note the void in our midst, we are grateful to have walked with you, for a few years, during you life's journey. Our life is brighter because we knew you. Love Krystyna and Walt
