“ I was privileged to serve with Dorothy for many years at FDU. In fact, we both were awarded THE PILLAR in 2002. Dorothy's warmth, humor, and faith will long linger at the University, continuing to strengthen students, faculty and staff alike. Please accept my condolences on Dorothy's passing. I am in Florida for two months, and will be unable to be with you. My prayers and love are with you all.

“ John and Family... We offer all of you our heartfelt condolences on the loss of a caring and hard working woman. Dorothy was passionate and devoted to her family, her neighbors, her township, her responsibilities at the Teaneck Jewish Center and at Fairleigh Dickinson University. She was a sincere friend and neighbor and will be missed by all she touched in Teaneck and beyond. May Dorothy rest in peace. Paul and Ricki Ostrow Teaneck, N.J.
