“ Dear Nora and Family, It is with painful sadness that we learned of your familys loss. Lou was a great and gentlemanly person who we were blessed to know. Although Cindy and I only had a few brief occasions over the years to spend time with you both, His cheerful smile,dry sense of humor and warm and engaging personality were always a pleasure to witness. Our old friendship, was not diminished by the passing of time and distance and your loss is shared and hopefully eased by our prayers for you and your family. Peace be with you, Joe and Cindy###imported-begin##Joe & Cindy Marcelletti###imported-end##

“ Dear Nora and Family, Words cannot express how saddened I am about Dr. Lou's passing. When I moved to NJ from NY some 30 years ago, I decided to reluctantly change dentists, thinking that no one could come close to my childhood dentist. Little did I know that I had found a jewel in Lou. I'm happy to have been his patient and his friend. Karen Banschick###imported-begin###karen banschick###imported-end##
