

Dwayne J. Middleton

January 1, 1972 - November 18, 2022

On November 18, 2022, Dwayne J. Middleton aka “Heavy” went home to be with the Lord. Dwayne was born on January 1, 1972, in Orange, New Jersey. He was the son of Steven Middleton and Nettie Kahn. Dwayne was a “Scottie Dog” graduating from Clifford J. Scott High School in East Orange in 1990. Dwayne earned his BA in Africana Studies from Rutgers University in 2019.

Dwayne had a passion for working in the community and uplifting families. The City of Newark, became his new home after graduating from high school. Over the course of 30 years, Dwayne was committed to serving Newark, and contributing to the vision of Mayor Ras J. Baraka. In 1992, he joined Black Nia F.O.R.C.E. and held the role of Sargent of Arms. Dwayne was the producer of POWER Hour a cablevision series that spotlighted Mayor Baraka. Member of 100 Black Men at Rutgers University, volunteer with the Newark Equitable Growth Advisory Commission for the City of Newark, a lifetime member of Newark NAACP, President of the Rutgers African-American Alumni Alliance, Board member of Lamonica McIver Civic Association. At the time of his passing, he worked for the City of Newark, as Manager of Special Projects with Office of Affordability and Sustainable Housing.

Dwayne was selfless, always putting others before himself. He was a devoted husband and father. Dwayne is preceded in death by his father, Steve, mother, Nettie, sister, Andrea, and Uncles Philip and John. He is survived by his loving wife of 23 years Sharon, his two children, Zariah and Nasir, Step-mother Carol, nephew Kallel (Krystal), niece Diani, Uncles Danny, Rick, John (Marsha), and Lawrence (Mary), Aunt Rhonda, along with a host of numerous relatives and friends.

A homegoing service will be held on November 30, 2022, at the Community Baptist Church at 224 First Street, Englewood, NJ. Viewing will be held from 9:00 - 11:00 am with the service immediately following.

In lieu of flowers, donations can be made to Rutgers African-American Alumni Alliance
