“ Will miss him at work. Found out at the funeral he was also a black belt as I am and so sad I will never be able to chat with him about that as well. Had more in common with him than most of my other coworkers.

Comforted though from the service and the song we were able to sing at the service that wonderful song.

“ My friend and mentor. He took me under his wing at work. I was always glad when we got to work on projects together. I learned so much from him. He helped shape me as a professional by watching, listening and observing. He helped me whenever I asked and sometimes when I didn't. He was a treasure, one of a kind. A true gentleman.
