“ *Dear Maron family, Your husband and father was the sweetest, nicest neighbor to have. He was such a nice man and I can picture him in his chair with the pipe. He walked the walk with his faith and know the many prayer meetings my Mother attended at your home were some of the most precious memories she held. Thank you for your many years of friendship. “ Where to begin, there are so many memories of Pop. Encouraging me to attend Cornerstone retreat., which had a profound impact on me, marrying Judene and I, baptizing our two wonderful boys, Nick and Chris, spending time at Mohawk Lake going out on the boat, and sharing his passion of woodworking with me when I first met Judene. I will never forget Pop showing me how to make the pen and pencil set with the golf club clip, his patience working with me and his passion for teaching me his woodworking skills will always remain in my memory. He left a lasting legacy, based on family, faith and a passion for life. I know he is reunited with all those that went before us. Rest in Peace Pop. Regards, Jack
