Tribute Wall

“ Ed Lofberg was a dear friend of my father & father in law. They enjoyed each other’s company & met @ least once a week. Ed was an engineer extraordinaire with a tremendous depth to teach his clients, potential clients & sales representatives about Corning glass. Mgmt @ Corning glass had no idea the strengths of Mr Lofberg. When Ed entered a room or a shop floor he commanded respect. Ed’s hands told the crews he was one of them & he was accepted well by ALL in the maintenance & engineering departments.

Ed was one hell of a man & was a man who stated “ the student doesn’t learn if the teacher doesn’t teach”.

I remember when Ed met with plant mgr @ Baker Chemicals west New Jersey. Ed confronted the plt mgr & told him he would take the new falling film evaporator back if he doesn’t get it installed quickly. It was installed within 2 weeks & worked as Ed designed.

I have never met a man like Ed Lofberg
