

Edward P. Chung

September 5, 2007

CHUNG, Edward P., age 79 of Teaneck died Wednesday, September 5, 2007. Beloved husband of Lilian Chung (nee) Fyffe. Devoted father of Edward Chung and his wife Linita, Valerie Royal, Chadwick Chung and his wife Lori, Karen Chung-Flores and her husband Albert, and Katherine Chung-Bridges and her husband Mark. Dear brother of Yvonne Chung-Tucker. Loving grandfather of 15 grandchildren. His memory will be cherished by his loving nieces, nephews, cousins, aunts and friends. Edward was a printer at the Bergen Record for over 15 years. Following his retirement he was a Copier Technician and later opened the K.C. Variety Store in Hackensack. He was a longtime member of the First United Methodist Church of Englewood where he served as a lay leader, church administrator, and lay speaker. Edward was also an ordained minister and had a monthly ministry at the Teaneck Nursing Home. He was a member of the Teaneck Community Chorus and later became a member of the Church of the Good Shepherd. A funeral service will be held on Tuesday at 10AM at the Church of the Good Shepherd in Bergenfield. Family and friends are invited to visit Monday, 6-9PM at the Volk Leber Funeral Home, 789 Teaneck Rd., Teaneck.

“ Though we only had a brief meeting, I immediately admired the Godly nature in Mr. Chung that I always recognized in my own Pastor, his son Edward Chung, Jr. We know grief is a natural feeling at this time, yet I know he is at peace with his saviour. During this period of bereavement, we wish the family would take comfort in knowing that he lived an exemplary life and is in heaven.##imported-begin##The Easy Family##imported-end##
