

Eleanor O. McBean

May 5, 2017

Eleanor McBean, 64, of Teaneck, New Jersey passed away on May 5th 2017 and was called to be with the Lord. She was a kind and gentle soul. She was born July 11th 1952 at Morrisania City Hospital in the Bronx to the late Joseph McNeil Morgan & Hattie Moore. Eleanor attended Walton High School in the Bronx and continued to further her education at Lehman College.

Eleanor met Vincent in 1975 and they were married in 1981. They were married for 35 years until her passing. This union produced two children; Stephen (deceased), and Morgan.

She worked as a Principal Administrative Associate in the Comprehensive Addiction Treatment Center at Jacobi Medical Center. She retired in 2008.

Eleanor was an avid reader and enjoyed films and plays. She enjoyed listening to music from the 1960s through the '80s and as she got older she developed a love for smooth jazz. She would listen to this while engaging in another one of her favorite pastimes, gardening. She would listen to jazz while planting flowers in the spring, lounging and barbequing in the summer and watching the trees change color in the fall.

She leaves to cherish her memory, her husband Vincent, daughter Morgan, brothers Joseph Morgan and John James, sister Maxine Brown, in-laws, a host of nieces and nephews, as well as many dear friends.

“Without you there would be no me.

I am everything reflected in your eyes.

I am everything approved by your smile.

I am everything born of your guidance.

I am me only because of you.”

Richelle E. Goodrich

“ I had the pleasure of knowing Eleanor for many years while working at the Comprehensive Addiction Treatment Center. Eleanor fostered a very caring and warm environment for the staff. She was kind, compassionate, highly competent and calm. She had a great smile and laugh. I was shocked and saddened to hear about her passing. My condolences to her family and friends- Steven Goldfinger
